

Lasting Tributes

at Rossendale Hospice

Remember
and celebrate the life of a loved one with a Lasting Tribute

What is a Lasting Tribute?

Each Lasting Tribute has its own individual web page named after your loved one.

A Lasting Tribute allows you, your family and friends the opportunity to come together and remember a loved one not only in words but also through photographs, messages music and videos.

If you wish, you may also contribute to a Lasting Tribute, whether or not your loved one received care from Rossendale Hospice. Donations made in lieu of flowers are often the first contributions. Some people choose to make a regular donation, others organise specific fundraising events or make a donation to mark a special occasion like a birthday or anniversary.

All donations are grouped together into one unique fund that shows how much money has been raised in tribute to your loved one.

You can select whether you want the Lasting Tribute to be public so that anyone can see it or private where it is just for you and special invitees.
